Judging and awarding

In the individual competition in each discipline, the 1st–3rd place winners are awarded with prizes, medals and diplomas:

- in shooting a “running wild boar 35 m” (SK-35) – by summing up the total score of the 3 basic series and the final;
- in sporting – by summing up the total score of the Game Compak and A-trap series;
- in the SK-35 shooting discipline – the 1st–3rd place winners are additionally awarded in the competition of teams, juniors and hunter groups;
- in hunting with a rifle – one series in compliance with F.I.T.A.S.C regulations;
- in complex shooting – by summing up the places obtained by the participants in 3 types of shooting.

In the case of equal results for the prize places:

- For SK-35, additional shooting is performed (2 shots per participant until the winner is determined);
- For Game Compak + A trap, in the case of equal results for 1st–3rd places, re-shooting is performed. For the rest of the participants the place is determined according to the results of the A trap series. If the results are equal, then the participants get a split place!
- For complex shooting, the best shots “10” are counted. If these shots are of equal count, then participants re-shoot a standing wild boar from the shoulder at a 100 m distance, with each shooter having two shots until the winner is determined.
- In the case of equal results for the total score, the place is determined by the place obtained in the SK-35 series.

The total prize pool is EUR 10,000.

Promotion Award: A EUR 100 gift card for the participant, who has achieved the best result in the discipline: hunting shooting with a rifle, shooting with Norma ammunition.

Among the participants of the competition and all interested parties who shopped at the “Purnavu Manor” tent (1 coupon = purchase worth EUR 30), there will be a raffle for 10 useful and valuable prizes, incl. SAUER 101 Classic XT cal. 7x64.
